

Belfast Telegraph

33rd Year. Wednesday, April 17, 1963. Price: 3d.

Work will be resumed by 200 to-morrow MARKET STRIKE ENDS

Porters accept 10s a week pay increase

VIEWPOINT
Monday, April 17, 1963.

THE BELFAST MARKETS STRIKE is over. The 200 fruit and vegetable porters and drivers have accepted a ten-shilling-a-week increase in pay and will go back to work to-morrow.

Guards protest walk-out denied

THERE has been no protest walk-out over extra fatigues and guard duties by Coldstream Guards at Chelsea Barracks, a Guards officer said to-day.

Teachers not using new techniques

SOME Northern Ireland schools are lagging in the development of progressive teaching techniques, Dr. A. C. Williams, Permanent Secretary to the Ministry of Education, told the annual conference of the Ulster Teachers' Union at Newcastle to-day.

Libel actions settled

LIBEL actions brought against two national newspapers by Sir Cecil McKee, former Lord Mayor of Belfast, have been settled, the Belfast Telegraph learned to-day.

THE ULSTER SUMMER

NOW that Easter is over, people are thinking of summer holidays, some to travel to other parts of the island and all longing for a sunny afternoon after a particularly wet winter.

Competitive

First and foremost, tourism is a highly competitive industry and visitors nowadays expect a lot more than they used to do—and are willing to pay for it.

Women at work

FEMINISTS, satisfied perhaps that they have been victorious on most other fronts, are now concentrating their attack in the battle of the sexes on economics.

WOMEN AT WORK

MEMBERS of the T.I.C. industrial charter for women. No doubt the charter will have many supporters among the 175,000 working women in Northern Ireland...

Five to die for treason

A SPECIAL court in Accra to-day sentenced five men to death after finding them guilty of treason.

Tory pool for Lord Poole

Mr. Macmillan has appointed Lord Poole to be chairman of the Conservative and Unionist Party jointly with Mr. Iain Macleod.

Nature stays on the job

Bags of spring onions which had been left at May's Market, Belfast, because of the strike, have sprouted.

Body found in UTA store

BELFAST police to-day were called to a gas-filled store at the U.T.A. locomotive yard, York Road, where they found the body of Norman Thompson (20), of 95 Rockview Street, Belfast, who had been missing since April 12.

WHERE THERE'S MUCK... TEN thousand Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs in Ulster are busy on "Bab-Job" Week.

And six of them are doing big business in Belfast city centre.

Shopkeeper assaulted in robbery bid

A LOBBY and a Belfast Corporation bus were used after a daring attempt to rob a Short Strand shopkeeper.

Mr. Kelly

Mr. Kelly had to take the rest of the day off work and have medical attention.

INSIDE TO-DAY

MR. STRATTON MILLS, M.P. for North Down, recently visited Berlin. His impressions of the "Wall of Shame" are given on Page 6.

WALL OF SHAME

Letters to the Editor and News of the Churches. More letters from readers in our Royal wedding price competition.

RACE ON LAKE

Captain Will Wrenn docked his motor boat in Toronto last night after a day-long race across Lake Ontario with an other German entrant to be the first foreign vessel to berth in Toronto Bay since 1928.

HOUSEHOLD

Table listing household items and prices: BRUSH LINED DOBLE DAWK PARBLE 2/11, NAPRINS 6d, THREE-PLECE IRISH EMBROIDERED NETTED SETS 4/11, etc.

THE WEATHERMAN SAYS

NORTHERN IRELAND - Bright intervals, scattered showers. Wind moderate or light, south-west to west. Temperatures near average; maximum 10 C. (50 F).

A load of fruit from Dublin is unloaded at May's Market, Belfast, to-day.

FRUIT ARRIVES BY ROAD FROM DUBLIN

A load of fruit from Dublin is unloaded at May's Market, Belfast, to-day.

Group from FF invited North

By our Political Correspondent ROY LILLEY
Efforts are to be made to arrange a North-South political symposium in Belfast next winter similar to that in Dublin last night in which two Young Unionists joined in a three-hour debate on co-operation between Northern Ireland and Eire.

PICKETS

Outside the hotel where the debate was held about 20 Sinn Fein demonstrators carried placards saying "Dublin call for the release of prisoners." "Thirteen prisoners still in Belfast jail" and "British troops must go."

SHOPKEEPER ASSAULTED IN ROBBERY BID

Nature stays on the job

Bags of spring onions which had been left at May's Market, Belfast, because of the strike, have sprouted.

Body found in UTA store

BELFAST police to-day were called to a gas-filled store at the U.T.A. locomotive yard, York Road, where they found the body of Norman Thompson (20), of 95 Rockview Street, Belfast, who had been missing since April 12.

WHERE THERE'S MUCK...

TEN thousand Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs in Ulster are busy on "Bab-Job" Week. And six of them are doing big business in Belfast city centre.

HOUSEHOLD

Table listing household items and prices: BRUSH LINED DOBLE DAWK PARBLE 2/11, NAPRINS 6d, THREE-PLECE IRISH EMBROIDERED NETTED SETS 4/11, etc.

THE WEATHERMAN SAYS

NORTHERN IRELAND - Bright intervals, scattered showers. Wind moderate or light, south-west to west. Temperatures near average; maximum 10 C. (50 F).

WOMEN AT WORK

FEMINISTS, satisfied perhaps that they have been victorious on most other fronts, are now concentrating their attack in the battle of the sexes on economics.

WOMEN AT WORK

MEMBERS of the T.I.C. industrial charter for women. No doubt the charter will have many supporters among the 175,000 working women in Northern Ireland...

WOMEN AT WORK

MEMBERS of the T.I.C. industrial charter for women. No doubt the charter will have many supporters among the 175,000 working women in Northern Ireland...

WOMEN AT WORK

MEMBERS of the T.I.C. industrial charter for women. No doubt the charter will have many supporters among the 175,000 working women in Northern Ireland...

WOMEN AT WORK

MEMBERS of the T.I.C. industrial charter for women. No doubt the charter will have many supporters among the 175,000 working women in Northern Ireland...

WOMEN AT WORK

MEMBERS of the T.I.C. industrial charter for women. No doubt the charter will have many supporters among the 175,000 working women in Northern Ireland...

WOMEN AT WORK

MEMBERS of the T.I.C. industrial charter for women. No doubt the charter will have many supporters among the 175,000 working women in Northern Ireland...

WOMEN AT WORK

MEMBERS of the T.I.C. industrial charter for women. No doubt the charter will have many supporters among the 175,000 working women in Northern Ireland...

Spinning Mill 3-DAY SALE COMMENCES TO-MORROW 9.30 a.m. DRESS DEPARTMENT: SEERLOP CINCINNAM 2/11, WHITE STREET CLOTH SLIPPER 3/11, FURIES BROCADES 4/11, etc.